

- When forecasting weather conditions using uploaded data and downloading a set of them to read using a chart:
- Use the weather data set found at the link to build a forecast model using the data provided. Download the dataset Read the dataset Use visualization if possible. – Split the dataset 80% for the train – 20% for testing – Build the model (Linear Regression, SVM) using the split of the train dataset. Use the test dataset for evaluation.

